

Netflix Data Analysis Report

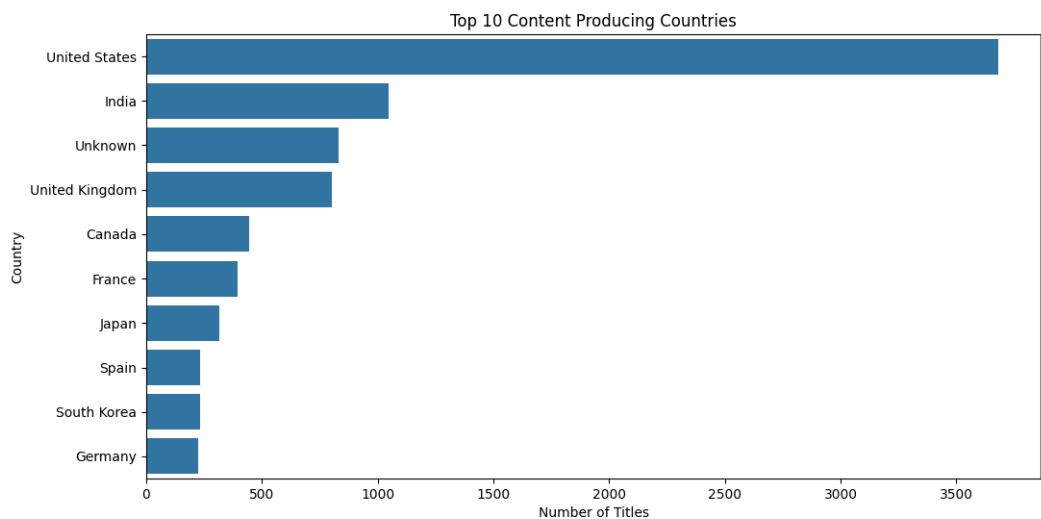

This report provides an analysis of the Netflix dataset, highlighting key insights into content strategy, global distribution, and popular trends. The analysis covers content mix, top-producing countries, rating distributions, popular genres, and trends in content release and duration.

Insight 1: Content Mix Over Time

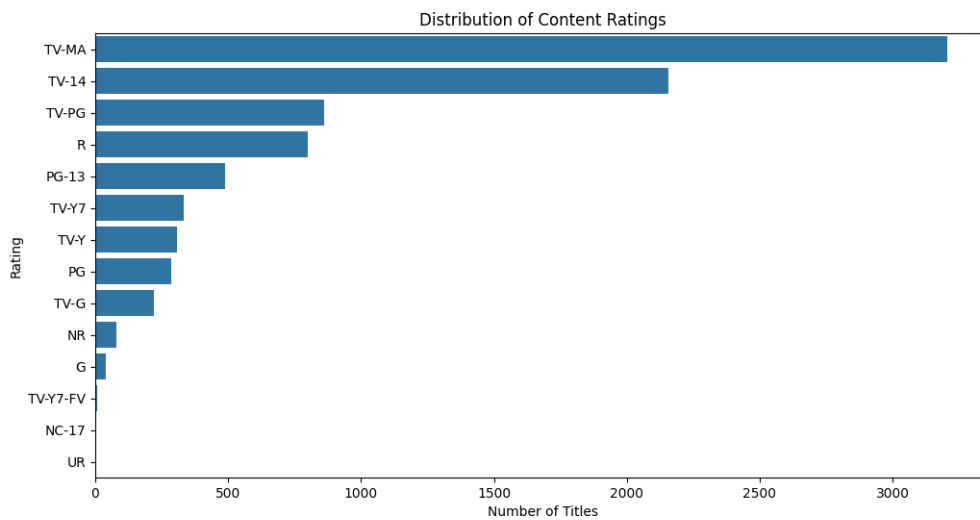

This chart shows the mix of movies and TV shows added to Netflix over the years.

Insight 2: Top 10 Content Producing Countries

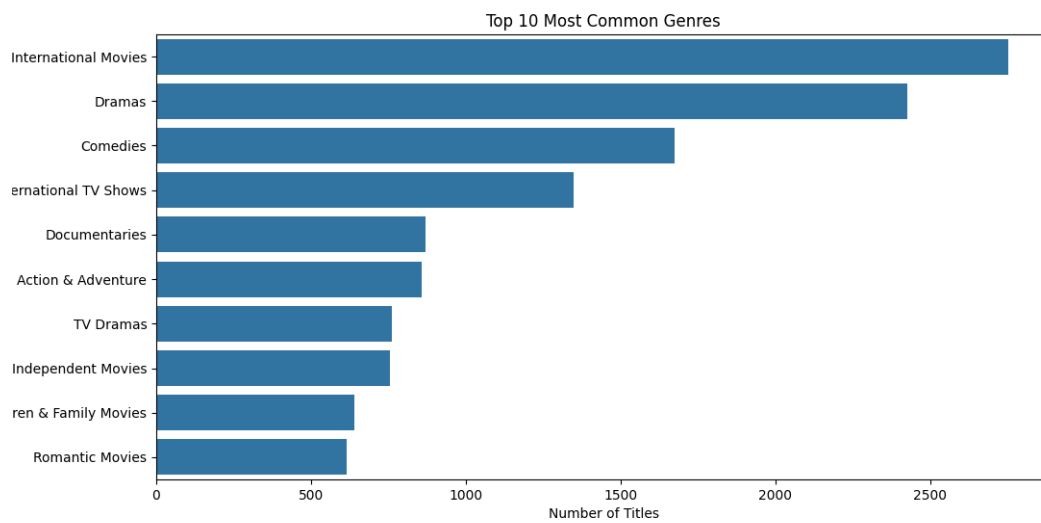

The United States is the largest content producer, followed by India and the United Kingdom.

Insight 3: Distribution of Content Ratings

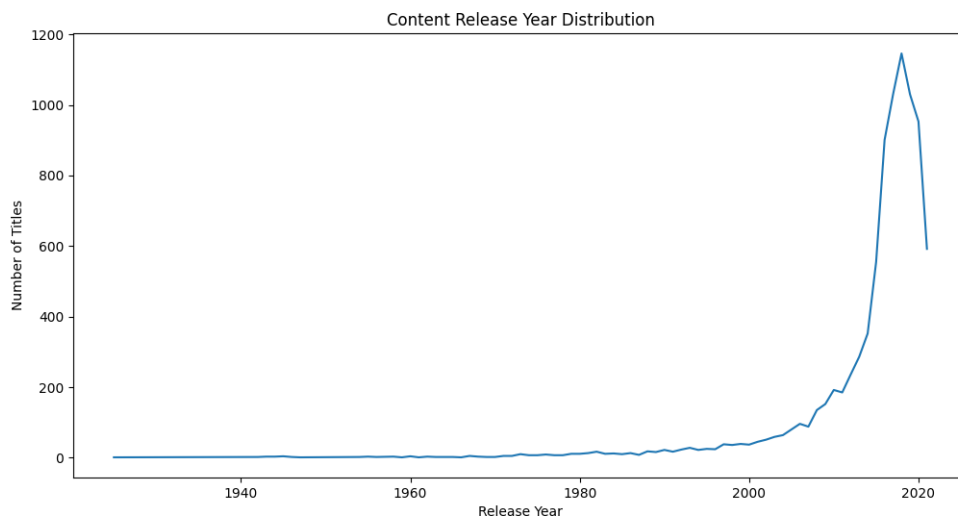

The most common rating is TV-MA, followed by TV-14 and TV-PG.

Insight 4: Most Common Genres

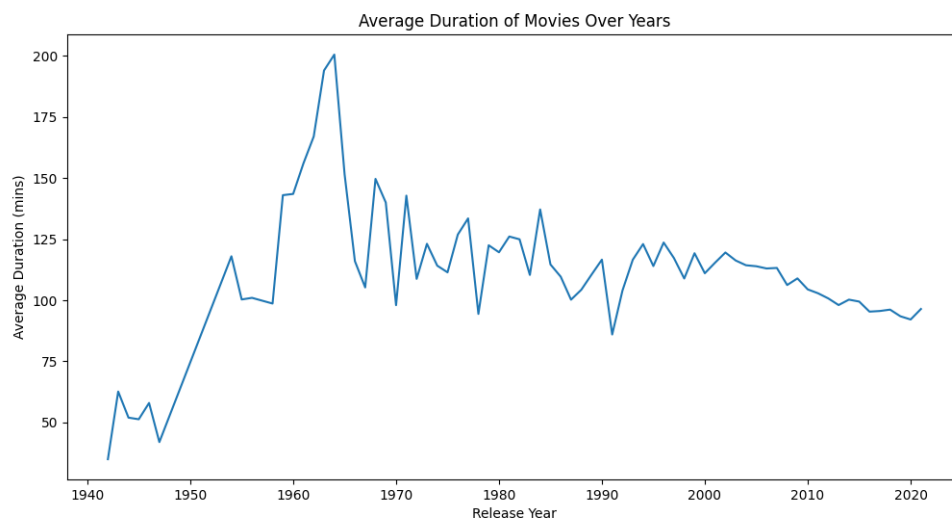

International Movies, Dramas, and Comedies are the most popular genres.

Insight 5: Content Release Year Distribution

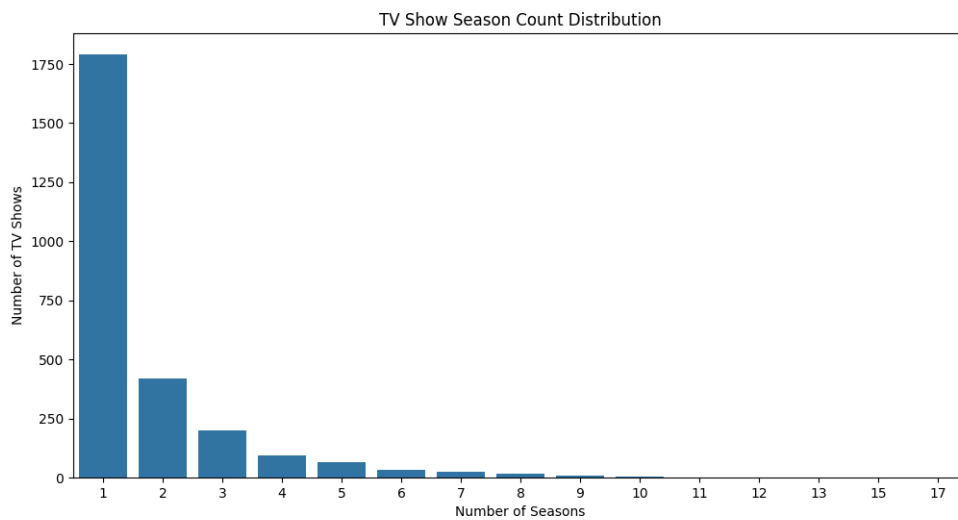

There has been a significant increase in content released in recent years, peaking around 2018.

Insight 6: Average Duration of Movies Over Years

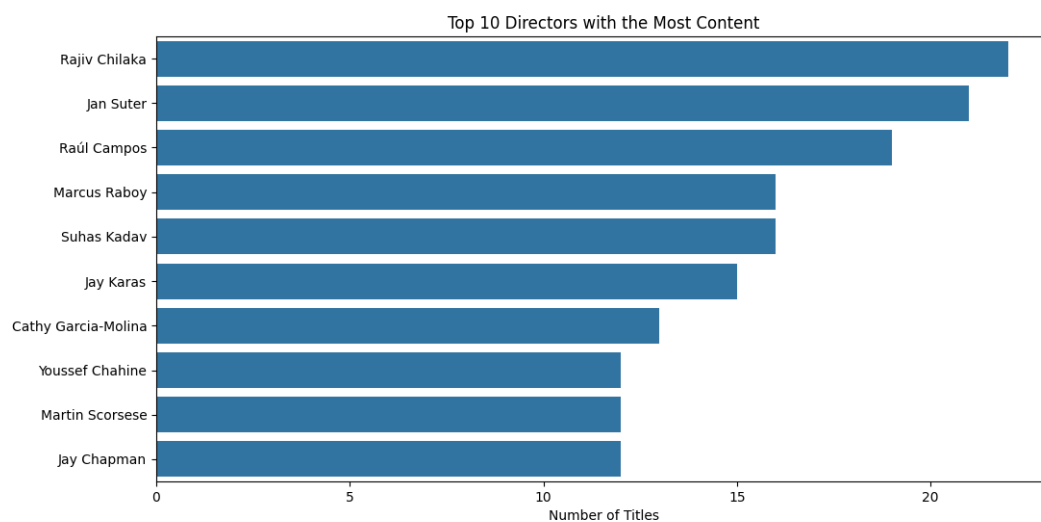

The average movie duration has slightly decreased in recent years.

Insight 7: TV Show Season Count Distribution

Most TV shows on Netflix have only one season.

Insight 8: Top 10 Directors with the Most Content

Rajiv Chilaka and Jan Suter are among the most prolific directors on Netflix.

Insight 9: Top 10 Actors with the Most Appearances

